

Cutter 10891

- The sturdy metal casing guarantees steady and precise guidance of the trapeze blade
- Ergonomically shaped metal handle with ribbed surface for secure grip

|                      |                                                                                |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Article number       | 10891-16225                                                                    |
| Type                 | PROFI HEAVY DUTY Cutter                                                        |
|                      | 1                                                                              |
| replacement blades   | 4 replacement blades                                                           |
| material of case     | Metal                                                                          |
| EAN                  | 4009729074695                                                                  |
| Suitable accessories | Replacement blades for cutter 10890, 10891, 10892 (self-service pack: 10 each) |

